In Memory of Bob McCabe

“I was born, I lived, and I died.”
-Bob McCabe

Bob McCabe was born on July 20, 1933 in Omaha. After earning a degree from Creighton University, he went on to build a successful tile business. However, Bob’s true passion was his family and his faith. He took great pride in his sons and their families, his step-children and his 31 grandchildren. He was the brother of the late Msgr. John McCabe and the uncle of Fr. Michael McCabe. A long time parishioner of St. Teresa Church in Lincoln, Bob was also a Pink Sisters Adoration Member for over 40 years.

Some of Bob’s most important and passionate work was with the pro-life movement. For nearly 15 years, Bob and his wife Pam provided the last line of defense for unborn children and their mothers by protecting them from abortion. Whether it was rain or snow, sleet or ice, clouds or sun, Bob and Pam could be found outside Lincoln’s abortion mill as witnesses to the dignity of human life as created in the image and likeness of God. Like St. Joseph, Bob’s fatherly and prayerful presence provided a needed stabilizing force – edifying to us all.

Bob passed away on December 17, 2014. Eternal rest grant unto him O Lord, and let perpetual light shine upon him; may his soul and all the souls of the faithful departed through the mercy of God rest in peace. Amen!
